47, Ludgate Hill: October 15, 1853.

The announcements for the Christmas season are now increasing upon us, promising, for the young especially, a rich variety of new and suitably illustrated Works. In addition to the lists of new Juveniles to be provided by Messrs. Addey and Co., Messrs. Grant and Griffith, Darton and Co., Dean and Son, and others, appearing in our last, we have a somewhat more than usually attractive show in the present "Circular." The usual Pocket-Book, Diary, and Almanack Lists of Messrs. Suttaby, Peacock and Mansfield, Penny and Son, Fulcher, and others, will be found in full detail, comprehending every variety in size, price, and extent of information.

Messrs. Black, of Edinburgh, have in preparation a new Illustrated Edition of "The Lay of the Last Minstrel," with 100 Engravings by Foster and Gilbert, which is to surpass in beauty their edition of "The Lady of the Lake."—Mr. Hogarth, of the Haymarket, has a Christmas book in progress containing early topographical views of the great artist, Turner.—Mr. Nathaniel Cooke, amongst other books, a new edition, even now, of "Uncle Tom's Cabin," intended to surpass all others in price and attractiveness; also a new book by Fanny Fern, entitled "Little Ferns for Fanny's Little Friends," the English copyright of this being secured. This is also the case with Alice Neal's new book, which Messrs. Addey and Co. will publish, "All is not Gold that Glitters."

Mr. Bentley is following up his new enterprise of moderate priced novels, by adding to his two cheaper series, the "Railway Library," and the "Parlour Bookcase," reprints of such as have been successful at a higher price, interspersing with them works first published; the volume for October in the latter series being "Luther in China."—Messrs. Hurst and Blackett will commence the long announced cheap edition of "Evelyn's Diary" on the 1st of next month.—The second volume of the "Run and Read Library" will appear on the 1st of November, consisting of a new tale by Mrs. Webb, author of "Naomi."

Messrs. Houlston and Stoneman commence a new magazine with the title of "The Lovers' Magazine, or the Advocate of the Law of Kindness."

To Messrs. Longman and Co.'s announcements in our last may be added "Rambles in Germany, France, Russia, &c. in search of Sport," by the Hon. F. St. John.—Mrs. Austin's "Sketches from German Life," and for the fiftieth number of the "Traveller's Library" the "Love Story," from Southey's "Doctor," edited by his Son-in-law. They have just published amongst other books "A Schoolmaster's Difficulties at Home and Abroad," which judging from its contents is a work of no ordinary pretensions.

Mr. Murray's list of announcements comprises Dr. Joseph Dalton Hooker's Himalayan Journals, with maps and numerous illustrations, in 2 vols. 8vo.; Sir Roderick Murchison's Popular View of the Silurian and other Primeval Rocks, with coloured map, plates, &c.; and the Illustrated Handbook of Architecture, by James Fergusson, Esq., is, we believe, nearly ready. The Rev. Dr. Milman has the first three volumes of the History of Later Christianity nearly ready: this work will form five volumes, 8vo. Dr. Waagen has also in the press, The Treasures of Art in Great Britain, in three volumes, 8vo.

J. S. Hodson, 22, Portugal Street, Lincoln's Inn, and all other Booksellers. (1989)

THE MANUAL EDITIONS of the CIRCLE of KNOWLEDGE. Intended to assist Teachers, Pupil Teachers, Governesses, and Mothers, with such explanations of words and phrases as shall lead the children to better understand each subject, and with a Series of Questions on each Lesson.

Gradation I. with Manual, 230 pp. 16mo. 1s. 6d.

The Explanations are as short and simple as the nature of the subjects will allow; the Questions are to a great extent literal and suggestive, but difficult enough for children at this stage of progress.

Gradation II. with Manual, 230 pp. 16mo. 1s. 6d.

The Explanations contain much additional matter illustrative of the Lessons; the Questions hinge on the information in both the Notes and the Lessons.

Gradation III. with Manual, 430 pp. 16mo. 3s. 6d.

The words explained are generally traced to their roots; thus furnishing a clue to both their primitive and their acquired meaning; the notes comprise much information on the subjects of the Lessons; and the Questions are of such a nature as will thoroughly test the amount and quality of the knowledge acquired.

ATTRACTIVE JUVENILE ANNUALS.

With Five Hundred Pictures.

Large 4to. price 6s. in elegant Pictorial Binding by LUKE LIMNER,

THE PICTURE PLEASURE BOOK FOR 1854;

CONTAINING FIVE HUNDRED ILLUSTRATIONS BY THE MOST EMINENT ARTISTS.

An Edition is also published mounted on cloth, price 12s.

"'The Picture Pleasure Book' is really the child's joy, for it gives him large folio pages full of woodcuts, executed in the best style of art, teaching him natural history, educating his eye to good drawing and graceful form, and telling stories in pictures. It is an admirable design, and no house that holds children should be without it."—CRITIC.

"This admirable work for children, which has the advantage of being in a good style of art, and at the price usually paid for rubbish, well merits success. It will furnish a source of constant amusement, and the conversation which it suggests may be made highly instructive."—ATLAS.

In 8vo. handsomely bound in gilt cloth, price 5s.

THE CHARM FOR 1854;

A BOOK FOR BOYS AND GIRLS.

The CONTRIBUTIONS by Mrs. HARRIET MYRTLE, ALFRED ELWES, J. H. PEPPER, FREDERICA GRAHAM, CLARA DE CHATELAIN, &c.

Embellished with numerous Illustrations by WEIR, WEHNERT, WARREN, RICHTER, SKILL, THOMAS, &c.

Notices of last year's Volume.

"A word in praise of the charming work for children, 'The Charm,' which is more eagerly looked for by several youngsters we know than 'Bleak House' is by their parents."—LEADER.

"Children, we find, love this periodical."—CRITIC.

"'The Charm' is an excellent periodical, full of pleasant stories and engravings."—ATLAS.

"An attractive and well-varied book."—SPECTATOR.

"'The Charm,' a book for boys and girls, is the completed volume, handsomely bound, of a book which has been appearing in monthly numbers during the year, and in which form we have several times noticed it with warm approval. It is full of interesting matter to read, and adorned with upwards of one hundred engravings, of admirable execution, illustrative of natural history, topography, juvenile science, costumes, and sports, drawn by the best artists."—CRITIC.

"'The Charm'—what a pleasant, promising title! and the contents fully satisfy the expectation it raises. The contents are most varied, consisting of fairy tales, natural history, anecdotes, descriptions of places, and other subjects, as the auctioneers say, far too numerous to mention. 'The Charm' has charming illustrations by Weir, Johannot, Lejeune, Absolon, and others. We need scarcely say they are artistic, and add not a little to the attractions of the book."—COURT JOURNAL.

"('The Charm' and 'Picture Pleasure Book.') 'These works are now established among the literature of the day, and are as popular as they are regular in their issue. A higher order of juvenile works, of their class, has rarely been given to the world; and when it is said that their design is excellent, and the manner in which that design is accomplished equally valuable, it will be conclusive that the more their worth is known, the better will it be for the amusement and instruction of the rising generation.'"—BELL'S MESSENGER.

The Author's Preface to the English Edition.

The present series of Historical Memoirs will be comprised, when complete, in Twenty-four Volumes—Twelve of these being devoted to Ancient, and Twelve to English Sovereigns. The design of the Author, in the compilation of these Works, has been to present to the general reader, whether youthful or mature, a succinct and accurate account of the lives and characters of the renowned potentates that form respectively the subjects of the volumes; illustrating, by many incidents and details, the spirit and temper with which they individually acted, and the influence which each exerted in his day. At the same time, while each volume has thus for its subject some one sovereign or potentate, the story of whose character and doings it is the special object of the volume to relate; the connection of each story with the events which preceded and followed it, is so far shewn that each series forms in some sense a continuous narrative, and if read consecutively, presents a view of the general current of history during the period embraced in it. Thus, the ANCIENT SERIES, beginning at the earliest periods with the story of CYRUS, and ending with that of CONSTANTINE, covers in some measure the whole ancient ground. If read attentively, and with proper regard to the chronological data that are furnished by the works themselves, it forms a general outline of the course of Ancient History, as full as the limits of space afforded by such a series will allow. It is the same with the ENGLISH SERIES, which, commencing with the volume on ALFRED, at the earliest periods at which we have any authentic accounts of the history of these islands, comes down through the twelve prominent names which have been selected as the subjects of the several volumes, to the reign of QUEEN ANNE. Here the series closes: for since this period the functions of government have almost universally come by degrees so to be transferred to legislatures and ministries, that the history of a nation is no longer, as it was in former days, involved and contained in the personal history of a sovereign. The plan on which this series is written, is, therefore, in a great degree inapplicable to the history of the present age.

With these explanations, the Author, having made arrangements to this end with the publishers of the present edition, and taken measures to secure to them the copyright of the remaining volumes, submits his narratives to the English public, hoping that they may prove both entertaining and instructive to such readers as may honour them with a perusal.

JACOB ABBOTT.

LONDON, April, 1853.

MR. BAKER'S GRADUATED SERIES

New English School Books and Tablet Lessons.

The CIRCLE OF KNOWLEDGE has received the approbation of H.M. Inspectors of Schools, and of numerous practical Teachers.

** Full allowance made to Schools.

THE CIRCLE OF KNOWLEDGE.

By CHARLES BAKER. Third Editions.

GRADATION I. comprising 200 Lessons, in easy sentences, for the youngest class of readers, and thirty-eight simple Poems. 130 pp. 16mo. price 9d.

GRADATION II. comprising 200 Lessons, in longer sentences, for a middle class of readers, and thirty Poems, and Fables. 130 pp. 16mo. price 9d.

GRADATION III. comprising 200 Lessons, full of information for a higher class of readers, twenty-six Poems, and an Index referring to 1300 subjects. 240 pp. 16mo. 1s. 6d.

** Each of the above Gradations is in matter and in type adapted for different pupils, from the youngest to the most advanced. The Poems have reference to the respective Lessons or Sections.

THE CIRCLE OF KNOWLEDGE.

IMPROVED TABLET LESSONS.

These Tablet Lessons are printed in a bold type, suitable for Classes of Twenty Pupils. If used with the metal Frames provided for them, each series will last, with only moderate care, many years, as they are printed on a strong cartridge paper.

There is great economy in the use of Tablet Lessons independent of the saving of books—namely, that any Series may be divided into Subjects, one section being supplied to one class, another to another class, and so on. The same remark applies to different schools under the same management—boys and girls, for instance; the only extra cost being the additional Frame or Frames required.

By dividing the Tablet Lessons into Five Series, they may be obtained in complete portions at a comparatively small occasional expenditure.

The Five Series of Improved

GRADUATED TABLET LESSONS.

First Series—On Man, Food, &amp;c.

GRADATION I. 1s. 9d.; II. 3s. 6d.; III. 4s. 6d.

The First Series consists of Forty-two Lessons, three of which are Introductory, twelve on the Body and its Parts, twelve on Food, five on Clothing, six on Habitations, and four on Education.

Second Series—Natural History.

GRADATION I. 2s.; II. 4s.; III. 5s.

The Second Series comprises Forty-eight Lessons, eighteen of which are on the Mammalia, nine on Birds, four on Reptiles and Fishes, five on Insects, and twelve on Plants.

Third Series—On the Earth, the Heavens, &amp;c.

GRADATION I. 1s. 9d.; II. 3s. 6d.; III. 4s. 6d.

The Third Series consists of Forty-two Lessons, ten of which are on the Earth, nine on the Kingdoms of Nature, seven on the Air and the Heavens, four on Time, and twelve on Climates.

Fourth Series—On Society, Commerce, &amp;c.

GRADATION I. 1s. 6d.; II. 3s.; III. 3s. 9d.

The Fourth Series comprises Thirty-three Lessons, eleven of which are on Social Life, eight on Government, six on other Nations, and eight on Trade and Commerce.

Fifth Series—On Matter, the Senses, &amp;c.

GRADATION I. 1s. 6d.; II. 3s.; III. 3s. 9d.

The Fifth Series consists of Thirty-five Lessons; nine on the Properties of Matter, eight on the Mechanical Powers, nine on the Senses, and nine on the Attributes of God.

The Manual Editions of

THE CIRCLE OF KNOWLEDGE.

Intended to assist Teachers, Pupil-Teachers, Governesses, and Mothers, with such explanations of words and phrases as shall lead the children the better to understand each subject; and with a Series of Questions on each Lesson.

GRADATION I., with Manual, 230 pp. 16mo. 1s. 6d.

The Explanations are as short and simple as the nature of the subjects will allow; the Questions are to a great extent literal and suggestive, but difficult enough for children at this stage of progress.

GRADATION II., with Manual, 230 pp. 16mo. 1s. 6d.

The Explanations contain much additional matter illustrative of the Lessons; the Questions hinge on the information contained in both the notes and the lessons.

GRADATION III., with Manual, 430 pp. 16mo. 3s. 6d.

The words explained are generally traced to their roots, thus furnishing a clue to both their primitive and their acquired meaning; the notes comprise much information on the subjects of the Lessons; and the Questions are of such a nature as will thoroughly test the amount and quality of the knowledge acquired.

MANUAL FOR

COLLECTIVE TEACHING:

1. Objects. Price 6d.

Exemplifying, by Twenty Exercises, the three first Lessons of the Circle of Knowledge.

READING WITHOUT SPELLING.

Second Edition, price 6d.

** One Hundred short and easy Lessons, abridged and simplified from the Lessons in the First Gradation of the Circle of Knowledge; especially adapted for teaching the Art of Reading by a natural and simple process: forming a suitable book for the youngest readers.

Graduated

SCRIPTURE LESSONS.

THE BOOK OF BIBLE HISTORY,

In Three Gradations, each Gradation consisting of 132 Lessons.

GRADATION I. 9d.; II. 9d.; III. 1s. 6d.

GRADATION I. The Lessons are short and in easy sentences, and form a young child's Bible History in large type. Each lesson is followed by illustrative texts or connecting observations; the texts being generally from the New Testament, the Psalms, or the Prophets.

GRADATION II. The Lessons are longer than in Gradation I., and the details more extended. The child repeats what has been learned without the weariness of an ordinary repetition, while new facts are at the same time acquired. Geographical notes are appended to each lesson throughout the work.

GRADATION III. The distinctive feature in the third Gradation is the copious extracts in the Words of Scripture that are interwoven in each Lesson; while each includes, with much additional knowledge, all that is contained in the lower Gradations. The geographical notices throughout this Gradation are descriptive of all the places mentioned in the Lessons.

GRADATION I., in TABLET LESSONS. Oblong 4to. 5s.

THE BIBLE CLASS BOOK;

With THREE THOUSAND EXPLANATORY NOTES, and Poems on the Subjects of the Lessons. Price 4s. 6d. cloth.

** The Notes are intended to convey information on Words, Phrases, Idioms, Places, Manners, Customs, Arts, Antiquities, and Natural History, and thus to prevent the necessity of reference to voluminous and expensive works. The Poems are generally short, and by popular authors.

THE HIGHEST STYLE OF ARTISTIC LITHOGRAPHY

Will be found in the Works produced by

DAY AND SON,
Lithographers to the Queen.

Landscapes, Architecture, Shipping and Figure Subjects
—Portraits direct from Life on Stone, or from Paintings, Drawings, or Daguerreotypes—Medical and Scientific Subjects, executed in a superior style peculiar to this Establishment. Calotypes copied.

The large Staff of Draughtsmen required by Messrs.
DAY AND SON to execute the MAPS, PLANS, AND SECTIONS, DIAGRAMS, &c., &c.

FOR HER MAJESTY'S STATIONERY OFFICE,

Offers to solicitors, engineers and surveyors, stationers and printers, throughout the country, great advantages for the rapid and economic execution of their Lithography.
If required, a plan received by the morning post may be lithographed, and despatched by the return post.

To meet the growing demand upon

LITHOGRAPHY FOR COMMERCIAL PURPOSES,

Messrs. DAY AND SON have just erected the largest premises for the purpose in the world. In soliciting orders from Manufacturers and others for PATTERN-BOOKS, SHOW-CARDS, LABELS, &c.

And every other Description of Lithography and Colour Printing, Messrs. DAY AND SON promise a style of work of unequalled excellence, with economy and rapidity of execution. The smallest consumers of the productions of Lithography in any part of the Kingdom should apply to Messrs. DAY AND SON for estimates, and it will be found, owing to the extent of this Establishment, that its manifest advantages, viz. superiority of work, great speed, and moderate charges, can be secured with satisfaction and saving to the customer.

PRINTING IN COLOURS,

As perfected and practised by Messrs. DAY AND SON, has assumed a position hitherto unattained for artistic exe-cellence, rapidity of execution, and economy of production.
The first and only perfect realization of a painting in colours, "The Blue Lights" (after Turner), executed at this establishment, secured for itself the designation of a Painting Print. Other examples of great merit, more particularly illustrating rapidity and economy of production, combined with artistic excellence, will be found in the three important works by

MATTHEW DIGBY WYATT, ESQ.

Namely, "THE GEOMETRICAL MOSAICS OF THE MIDDLE AGES," "METAL WORK AND ITS ARTISTIC DESIGN," and
"THE INDUSTRIAL ARTS OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY."

These works, although elaborately printed in colours and gold, have been sold at the price of uncoloured works. The last-named, consisting of 160 plates, issued in Fortnightly Parts of four plates, proves the possibility of adapting Chromolithography to periodical works—to book plates requiring long numbers cheaply and quickly—and to geological or other coloured maps.

Messrs. DAY AND SON are prepared to estimate and undertake works of any extent and to meet every requirement as to quantity and speed, or necessity as to price.

STEEL AND COPPER-PLATE PRINTING OF EVERY DESCRIPTION.

LADIES, Amateurs of Drawing, will find the reproduction by themselves of their own Sketches, by means of established TRADE to be disposed of (in full business). It only requires to be seen to meet with a ready purchaser, having an excellent Printing Trade, and several valuable additional engagements. Satisfactory reasons will be given for its being offered. It is in a flourishing Manufacturing Town, Modern Stock, good House, in best situation in the Town, commanding a good Ready-money Trade. Not less than £500 to £600 coming-in. Apply (by letter only in the first instance), to B. T., at Messrs. Low and Son's, 47, Ludgate Hill, London.

LIBRARY for SALE.—Upwards of 1,400
Vols. of Books, chiefly Divinity, many of them old and scarce folios, in very good condition, the property of the representatives of a Clergyman deceased, offered for Sale in One Lot. Catalogues may be had gratis at the Office of the Publishers' Circular, 47, Ludgate Hill, or on application to Mr. Sandford, Bookseller, High Street, Shrewsbury; from whom every information may be obtained.

TO BE DISPOSED OF, an old-established BOOKSELLING, PUBLISHING, PRINTING, and STATIONERY BUSINESS, in the centre of a City in the West of England.

The Bookselling department consists of a well-selected stock of New and Second-hand Books.

The Publishing department consists of several Copyright Works, all of which are in demand and selling well.

The Printing department is well furnished as a Book and Jobbing Office: the Types and Presses are of the most modern description.

About the sum of £1,700 will be required to take the Stock, of which £700 may remain on approved security.

The ill-health of the Proprietor is the cause of his relinquishing it.

For further particulars apply to M. C., Post Office, Oxford.

*** The Foreman of the Bookselling department would be happy to take a small share in the business, if in consonance with the wishes of the purchaser.

TO PRINTERS.—To be Disposed of immediately, in consequence of the Proprietor having entered into other engagements, a well-established BUSINESS in the above line, where a first-rate trade has been carried on during the last eight years.

The Office is entirely complete in every department, and comprises a Super-royal Columbian Press by Clymer and Dixon, Foolscap Folio Albion ditto by Hopkinson and Cope, Demy Standing Press, with glazed and pressing boards (quite new), a well-selected stock of modern Type from Pearl to Pica, and an extensive assortment of the most useful Jobbing Founts from Great Primer to Twenty-line (all metal), and of Wood Letter from Twenty-line to Fifty-line and upwards, French Metal Furniture, Brass Rule, with every requisite for carrying on the Business to any extent.

Three-fourths of the above is nearly new, in excellent condition, and the whole will be sold for £300.

A Stationery and Bookselling Business might be advantageously added to the above.

Application to be made to Mr. Edward Gentle, Printer, Sheep-Market, Spalding, Lincolnshire.

THE BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEW.
—ADVERTISEMENTS intended for the forthcoming Number are requested to be forwarded to the Publishers by the 20th of October, and BILLS by the 24th.

By W. J. Crawford (Successor to the late J. Dowding), 82, Newgate Street, London. If required by post, a stamp to be forwarded.

TO PUBLISHERS.—The attention of the Trade is called to

THE MANCHESTER WEEKLY ADVERTISER, recently established, an important feature in which is the portion of its pages devoted to Reviews of New Books. Every week will appear at least a column entitled "The Literature of the Day," contributed by a London Reviewer of eminence, and it is hoped that in the intelligent Book-buying district in which it is published, where the want of such a publication has long been felt, it may materially increase the sales of Books. The "Advertiser" is published every Saturday Morning, at 33, Corporation Street, Manchester, and has the largest circulation of any provincial paper in existence. By the plan of recirculation adopted it reaches every part of the Kingdom.
